It seems like online learning is going pretty well so far. I like what I am seeing from kids. Please let me know if anyone is struggling to access any of my content.

This week we continue to work in BOY, TALES OF CHILDHOOD, by Roald Dahl.

This is my plan for the week:

Monday 4/6 - Read in Boy (pgs 53-67)/

Visualization lesson

Tuesday 4/7: Fun Optional Lesson- Google slideshow

Wednesday 4/8: Read in Boy (pgs 68-71)/

Identify: Conflict Climax Resolution

Thursday 4/9: Read in Boy (prgs 75-84)/ Writing a friendly letter and literary devices

Friday: Catch up day

I will post my lessons each day in google classroom. Please stay well and reach out with any questions or needs. I am here to help!!

Need something else to read? These sights can help- including free audible downloads..

I hope everyone is doing well in this unusual and concerning time. My family is well and we are adhering to the isolation recommendations. Online learning seems to be going well.

Hopefully the work that is presented can be completed in reasonable time. As a math department we are focused on cohesion and continued opportunities for learning. In some cases student scores for the Khan Academy activities have not shown on my Teacher Dashboard. I continue to try and figure out how to make this work smoothly. Students need to make sure they are signed in through their Google Account so their scores are reflected in the dashboard. Please let me know if you have questions or concerns.

This weeks expectations:

Monday 4/6-Unit 7 Lesson 4

Tuesday 4/7-Unit 7 Lesson 5

Wednesday 4/8-Unit 7 Lesson 6

Thursday 4/9-April 9 computation

Friday-catch up day

Be well

Good Afternoon! This week in American History, students will begin their study of the Great Depression.

There are two assignments posted to Google Classroom that provide information about the Causes of the Great Depression. Students are to utilize information gathered from these two assignments to create a Facebook page for President Herbert Hoover.

I went through both assignments with students today via Zoom. The agenda from the meeting has been posted to Google Classroom. I need to do some video editing before posting copies of the video to YouTube for students to review.

Please email with any questions!

Thanks,

Mr. Lopez

I've added videos and lessons for the week on my Google Classroom. Students should progress through the tasks in order, but may work ahead if they so choose. There are no assignments for Friday, April 10, 2020, so students can have some much needed catchup time.

Please have the students reach out if they have questions!
