Committee Updates-Heather Goff:

Lynn coordinated treats & sweets. Next time we'll communicate with Dr. Wuch. Lynn was in touch with Lisa Eckert though. Next time: between 2/8 & 2/11.

Cinnamon Roll fundraiser. Online ordering. 2 hour pick up window We will follow CDC guidelines. Send home order form. Advertise in Paw Print, Sunday Scoop & Facebook. 2 week is a good ordering time frame. Later discussion about the date.

Scholastic Book Fair--see Suzie's email update. We had a great turnout!

School Update-Julie Wuch:

No anticipation of any changes for 2nd semester in terms of the return to school plan. No field trips, extra curriculars, visitors in bldg, etc.

We had 18 students come out of virtual & join responsive. 11 students went from responsive to virtual. 8/11 students were already in Launch.

Construction moving along well. Almost finished with exterior work on elevator. There is now a vestibule with double doors in the entryway. Buzzer system.

One Book-One School. Whole school reads the same book. 8 day lesson planned by a committee. Started with providing teachers with lesson plans for difficult and/or whitewashed and/or absent topics in the curriculum. This year: Indigenous people and also Black history. Kids go home & teach families. Kids go home & teach families. Go Show the World & The Sit In.

We are very focused on social-emotional health for students & staff. Everyone has also had recent trauma training in the past few years & staff are revisiting that information. Being aware of how trauma shows up in little kids & what to do about it. Monday Matters restorative circles is when kids & teachers get to know one another & build trust on a deeper level.

Individualized kdg tours might be possible.

Rengel:

Updated PTO Calendar. We discussed changes.

Meeting Adjourned.
